Policy Number 4.06

BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS AND OTHER COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

POLICY

The department shall be guided by its Bloodborne Pathogens Exposure Control Plan and statements herein for prevention, education/training, post-exposure evaluation, follow-up treatment, etc., relating to bloodborne pathogens (e.g., HIV and hepatitis B) and other communicable diseases.

PROCEDURE

I. STATE AND FEDERAL REGULATIONS

The Bloodborne Pathogens Exposure Control Plan and this policy were developed in accordance with the federal and state guidelines or as prescribed by law.

II. THE EXPOSURE CONTROL PLAN

The Bloodborne Pathogens Exposure Control Plan is designed to provide the guidance and means for employees to minimize or eliminate on-duty exposures to bloodborne pathogens.

- A. The plan shall be supplemented by a training program that is developed specifically for the topic.
- B. The plan shall be reviewed by the Professional Standards Office annually and updated whenever necessary.
- C. A copy of the plan shall be made available to employees via the Honolulu Police Department intranet.
- D. The Human Resources Division shall make a copy of the plan available to the director of the state's Department of Labor and Industrial Relations upon request.
