EXTRADITION

POLICY

The Honolulu Police Department shall establish fugitive extradition procedures and be guided by Chapters 832 and 833, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

PROCEDURE

RESPONSIBILITIES

- I. When a request to search for a fugitive is received from another jurisdiction, the Criminal Investigation Division (CID) shall determine if there is a legal basis for arresting and holding a subject.
- II. Based on the fugitive's offense, the search and the case shall be referred to the appropriate investigative element.
- III. When a fugitive is apprehended and his or her identity is established, before an arrest or any other action is initiated, the agency requesting the apprehension shall be contacted.
