Policy Number 6.06

HANDLING DRIVERS WITH SUSPENDED OR REVOKED DRIVER'S LICENSES

POLICY

- I. When officers determine that a person has been operating a motor vehicle with a suspended or revoked driver's license, they shall attempt to determine the reason for the suspension or revocation, with the assistance of the Communications Division.
- II. Officers may arrest or, in lieu of arrest, issue a citation to such an operator, who shall not be permitted to continue to operate any motor vehicle after the stop.

PROCEDURE

I. AUTHORIZATION

- A. The operator shall be arrested or cited under Section 286-136, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), if the operator's license was canceled, suspended, or revoked for violation of any of the following:
 1. Section 286-102, Licensing;
 2. Section 286-122, Suspension of a license;
 3. Section 286-130, No operation under foreign license during revocation or suspension in this state;
 4. Section 286-131, Unlawful use of license;
 5. Section 286-132, Driving while license suspended or revoked;

6. Section 286-133, Unlawful to permit unauthorized person to drive; or
 7. Section 286-134, Employing unlicensed driver.
- B. The operator shall be arrested or cited under Section 287-44(d) if the operator's license was suspended or revoked under Chapter 287, HRS, Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Act.
- C. The operator shall be arrested or cited under Section 291E-62, HRS, operating a vehicle after license and privilege have been suspended or revoked for operating a vehicle under the influence of an intoxicant; penalties, if the operator's license has been revoked, suspended, or otherwise restricted pursuant to:
1. Part III or IV of Chapter 291E or Section 291E-61, or 291E-61.5, or 291E-62, HRS, or
 2. Any of the following as they were in effect on December 31, 2001: Part VII or XIV of Chapter 286, HRS; or Section 200-81, 291-4, 291-4.4, 291-4.5, or 291-7, HRS.

II. EXEMPTION

Pursuant to Section 291E-44.5, HRS, a person with an ignition interlock permit will be allowed to drive a vehicle equipped with an ignition interlock device.
