

HONOLULU POLICE DEPARTMENT VIDEO AMUSEMENT DEVICE PERMIT APPLICATION

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

INTRODUCTION:

Under the Revised Ordinances of Honolulu (hereinafter “ROH”) Ordinance 25-28 (June 24, 2025), persons making video amusement devices (hereinafter “Devices”) available to the public in a location must display a permit obtained from the Honolulu Police Department (hereinafter “HPD”) in a place visible to the public at that location. Permits are not required for other electronic amusement devices including mechanical amusement devices. For more information and legal definitions, please see ROH Ordinance 25-28.

Person seeking to operate Devices available to the public must apply to Honolulu Police Department (hereinafter “HPD”) for a Video Amusement Device Permit (hereinafter “Permit”) using the attached Application Form. There is no application fee for a permit. Once issued, the Permit is tied to a particular location as described in the application. The Permit location and the Permit are not transferable. An applicant seeking Permits for multiple location, must submit a separate application for each location. Adding Devices to a particular location requires an updated Permit application.

KEY DEFINITIONS:

Available to the Public. Open to an individual granted entry or admission to physically enter a premises or participate in an activity.

Electronic Amusement Device. Any electronic amusement device, including mechanical devices or video amusement devices, requiring the insertion of money, tokens, credits, or other valuable consideration.

Location. Any business establishment, public or private club, association, or any other site where a video amusement device is displayed or operated for use or play.

Operator. Any person in substantial proprietary control or other authoritative control over the location.

Video Amusement Device. A digital electronic amusement device that offers video or graphic-based gameplay through electronic or digital means. Video amusement devices include but are not limited to video games, virtual reality simulators, and dance or motion games. Video amusement device excludes music devices and vending machines.

PERMIT APPLICATION EVALUATION:

HPD may issue a video amusement device permit after the applicant’s completion of the application form and following an investigation of the applicant and the

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

PERMIT ENFORCEMENT:

Any person issued a video amusement device permit under this article, or operator in which a permitted video amusement device is located must allow HPD to enter the location for the limited purposes of inspecting records, video amusement devices, and premises regulated under this article to ensure compliance with this article.

Any person issued a video amusement device permit shall supervise the use and operation of the Devices to prevent their use or operation for any purpose contrary to the provisions of this article or any other applicable city, State, or federal law or requirement.

The entire Permit must be visible in the same location as the Permitted Devices.

A person who has been issued a video amusement device permit or who is in control of a video amusement device may not display an expired permit.

PENALTIES:

HPD may issue a corrective warning to any operator to comply with all provisions of this article. HPD may suspend or revoke the Permit where cause exists that would otherwise be grounds for the denial of the permit, or an intentional or knowing violation by the permittee of any provision of this article has occurred.

Any person who violates intentionally or knowingly violates any provision of this article or any condition of a Permit at a location: (1) operating five (5) or fewer video amusement devices may be guilty of a violation; (2) operating nineteen (19) or fewer video amusement devices may be guilty of a petty misdemeanor; and (3) operating 20 or more video amusement devices will be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Property used in violation of this article shall be authorized to be seized and forfeited pursuant to HRS Chapter 712A.
